

i-ImmunDx™ Analyzer

Highly sensitive, portable reader for automated results

- Fast, easy-to-use interface that allows operators to test patient samples and navigate stored results with speed
- Small, light-weight, and portable, suitable for in outpatient, clinical inspection, laboratory, and other POC settings
- Two test modes, allowing the operator greater flexibility to accommodate to workflow demands
- Automated results that support qualitative, semi-quantitative, and quantitative in vitro immunoassays
- High-capacity storage, saves results automatically and allows for easy data export
- Built-in thermal printer for printing test results in real time